

You are invited to attend the:

Aged Care >>>Church Resources Network
- presentations, networking and training activities

Thurs 25th Feb 2010 - Koorong Christian Bookstore at West Ryde, Sydney, time: 6:30-8pm.

Topics: 1) Leadership & mentoring in a multicultural environment – Australia is a wonderfully multicultural country and it is also a country where some healthcare staff have not had any or very little foundational education in the Christian faith, its church denominations or pastoral care for the aged. Come to this presentation and learn some simple and important keys to help mentor and carefully support those who need to know more about Christianity and pastoral care for the support of those within their care.

Topic 2) Christian activities for dementia; simple activities to enhance the spirituality of those in your care.

Notes & Koorong Bookstore discount voucher for every attendee.

Thurs 25th March 2010 - Koorong at West Ryde, 6:30-8pm

Topic: Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care - what to do when our resident cannot speak.

A person's verbal responses plays a central role in Action and Reflection. Learn more about non-verbal responses, "micro responses" and how to reflect on an encounter with a person with very low-level responses.

Notes and practical session and Koorong Bookstore voucher for every attendee.

Discount Koorong bookstore vouchers are kindly supplied as a gift from Koorong. The bookstore is open until 9pm on the evening.

Your evenings are presented by Jennifer Freeman BA hons, who is a Diversional Therapist with many years experience working in chaplaincy, providing music and activities for residents living in aged care and adult long-term healthcare facilities. Jennifer provides dementia-specific activities and specialises in engagement with clients with a range of conditions and unique healthcare challenges such as traumatic brain injury.

The bookstore is open until 9pm on the Thursday evenings and so you can also take the opportunity to utilise your visit to the store with your voucher or save it for a rainy day!

Venue: Koorong Bookstore, Lvl 1 Conference Room
